Dear Parents

The theme of our Worship this week fits in perfectly with the chirpy little fluffy visitors we have in Class 1! 'Receive New Life' is inspired by the idea that we can always start afresh

From after school this Wednesday, school will be hosting a Scholastic Book Fair where children will get the opportunity to buy from a wonderful range of current best-selling books. They will be on sale until the following Wednesday morning so feel free to come into school with your child anytime between 8:30 am – 8:50 am and 3:30 pm – 4:00 pm over that week. A percentage of what is bought also comes directly back to school which will be used towards

I am delighted with all the positive feedback about our new Facebook page! Just to reassure you, we are following our online safety policy and we will only post photos of your children if you gave consent for their images to be used (e.g. for the newsletter and website). If you wish to remove consent then please inform the office. Please keep sharing the page so that as

On Wednesday there will be a Judo presentation in school where some children will be offered the chance to pursue this as a club after school. More information will follow after

Last Thursday we said goodbye to one of our longest serving staff members. Mrs O'Neill has worked at St. Mary's since 1999 and although retired, she has been offering her invaluable expertise in helping prepare the Year 6 children for their SATS tests during and after school. We wish her well now that she has that little bit more time on her hands and we hope to see her visit the school in the future. Thank-you for everything Mrs O'Neill – the children

I hope you have an enjoyable week!
