Dear Parents,

This week we enter the most important time in the church calendar, 'Holy Week'. The week has started today with a full day visit from Rhema Theatre Company who led a fabulous Assembly all about the Easter Story through the eyes of St Peter. During the rest of the day all the children will be taking part in drama workshops with the company - please do ask your child about it when they come home! Throughout the week the children will be focusing on the importance of the events in Holy Week in classes and through Worship. On Thursday we invite you all to join us in Church for our Easter Service at 10 a.m. where each class will lead us in Worship through drama, singing and prayer.

As a Catholic school we believe it is vital that we are all together in school during Holy Week. I know this often causes us to be out of synch with other school holiday patterns but it is of great importance to our faith that we have this time each year to reflect on the magnitude of Easter.

Please join us for Easter Bingo on Wednesday from 1.40pm - the full details are on our Facebook page and were sent on the recent flyer. Children will need between 30p and £3 with them to play and refreshments will be on sale

The scholastic book-fair is proving very popular and will be available until Tuesday evening. Please pop into school to see the wide range of books available for children to choose from. A percentage of the amount raised will go straight to school to pay for trips in the Summer term.

On Wednesday morning, Antony Parkinson from 'Judo Education' came in to perform a whole school Judo demonstration which the children thoroughly enjoyed! This was to promote an after-school club which will be offered to children from both Key-Stages at different times of the Summer term – a letter will be going home for those children who are interested before the sessions start.

Finally, thank-you so much to Mr and Mrs Bradshaw for the bench that I am sure you have all seen at the front of the school. It is a fantastic dedication to Ms. Nolan who we continue to remember at all times in our prayers.

May we wish you a happy and holy Easter and thank you for your continued support. It is always very much appreciated.
