Preparation for Baptism: The Bishop has approved a policy for Baptism which must be observed throughout the Diocese. Two directives in particular are:

1: As an indication ... of the parents' willingness to embrace the call to live as part of the Church, it should be required that they, or at least the Catholic parent, attend Mass for at least six Sundays in preparation for Baptism.

2: ... priests should not baptise children resident in another parish without a just reason. One example of a just reason is where one or both parents are REGULAR attenders at Sunday Mass in another parish, such that they consider that parish to be the parish to which they "belong".

In obedience to the Bishop, this policy will be faithfully observed. In addition, to ensure that God Parents are suitable people to stand as representatives of the Church's faith and to care spiritually for the newly Baptised, a God Parent will be required to show proof of their Baptism and obtain a letter from their Parish Priest confirming that they are an appropriate candidate for this important role.
